I beg to remind you of our letter dated the 18th July last requesting you to appoint a representative of your Government on each of the following sub-committees:-

1. River Training & Irrigation.
2. Engineering Industries (Including Transport).

My Committee will appreciate it very much if your Government will kindly appoint your Government's representatives on these sub-committees, as early as possible. The work of these sub-committees has been delayed for these officers.

I enclose herewith a copy of my previous letter.

Yours sincerely,

A.P. Huttar

The Chief Secretary to Government.

Dear Sir,

As you may probably be aware, the National Planning Committee has appointed among others the following sub-committees:-

...

On each of these, it has been desired that a representative of your Government should be nominated, in order to make the discussion of the problem ~~in~~ full, complete and comprehensive, from all points of view. I am writing this accordingly to request you to be so good as to nominate your representative on each of these sub-committees, at your earliest convenience, and let me know the name and address of the official (or non-official) member thus appointed, so as to enable me to get into contact with him.

Yours truly,

(Sd)
